

Anne-Catherine Lepers

Sworn translator / student/ English and French teacher

Summary

- Multi-tasking student, wanting to get a first experience in politics. Good adaptability, organisation and communication skills, I am ready to take on challenges. I have been working as a sworn translator for the Courts of First Instance and as a language teacher for over two years while studying at university. I have worked and studied abroad and developed good adaptation skills. I regularly (min twice a month) organise events for 15 to 60 people.
